

Richard Mawdsley

Director of Development for Peel L&P's Wirral Waters

Graduated from Reading University with a BSc in Land Management and the Cass Business School with an MSc in Property Development & Finance.

Joined Peel L&P in 2002 after 12 years working for several consultancies and developers in London - involved with a diverse range of development projects across all use sectors and scales: residential, industrial, commercial, leisure and retail.

As Director of Development for Peel L&P's Wirral Waters he is responsible for the delivery of one of the UK's largest and most sustainable regeneration projects of its kind.